

September

The worksheet is designed for a monthly activity. It features a decorative border of small circles around the perimeter. The main area is divided into four large rounded rectangular boxes. The top-left and bottom-right boxes are outlined with solid lines, while the top-right and bottom-left boxes are outlined with dashed lines. A central illustration of a leaf is positioned between the two columns of boxes, with its stem extending downwards into the bottom-left box.